BUNDLE

YAY!

Congratulations on downloading these fun Scavenger Hunt printables. I just know your next outdoor adventure is going to be awesome!

I'm Tina, the founder of Mindfulmazing, mindfulness teacher, positive parenting obsessed, and mom to one little boy.

At Mindfulmazing, we create positive resources that help kids foster an attitude of gratitude, develop resilience, practice mindfulness, and regulate emotions so they can face life's challenges with confidence.

HOW TO PLAY:

Print however many Scavenger Hunt sheets you need based on how many kids you have. For classroom settings, I recommend splitting kids into teams. I also recommend printing on thick stock paper, so it's not as flimsy, and can handle some wear 'n' tear.

Decide which Scavenger Hunt activity you will do:

- Nature Scavenger Hunt - Simply find the items on the printable and check them off as you go. This is suitable for young kids (toddlers and preschoolers) and can be used anywhere outdoors. Think parks, forests, backyards.
- Outdoor Scavenger Hunt - Solve the clues and then find the items (and keep track of what you find on the sheet provided). A fun twist is to have kids draw a small picture of what they find (or they can just write it out too). If playing with a group of kids, the first person to solve all the clues and find all the items wins. This scavenger hunt is suitable for school-aged kids, or assisted for younger kids who can't yet read.
- Color Scavenger Hunt - Find items that are closest to the color shown in the circle. Check off and write in the space provided the name of the item you find.
- Watchful walk printable - This is a fun exercise you can incorporate into any of the Scavenger Hunts above or use on their own. A watchful walk is where we engage our 5 senses and find 5 things we can see, 4 things we can hear, 3 things we can touch, 2 things we can smell, and 1 thing we can taste. This is one of my favorite mindfulness activities and is excellent for bringing kids into the present moment. (And it's great for you too).

SCAVENGER HUNT CLUES

1. I love to soar above the trees, look up, look up, can you see me?
2. I have two wheels and sometimes a bell, I love being ridden, and if you fall off, I promise I won't tell.
3. You give me to people to make them happy. I smell sweet and sometimes make people feel happy.
4. I stand tall and proud, and I'm sturdy as can be. I provide everyone shade, and sometimes birds live in me.
5. I buzz around and making honey's my thing, but be careful not to disturb me, or you might feel my sting.
6. I'm really pretty but sometimes full of ants. People tend to me and grow my plants.
7. I have a blade, so be careful around me. I like to keep the yard looking as neat as can be.
8. I'm made of wood, but it's all good, people love to relax on me, and so they should!
9. I'm really tiny and make tons of tunnels. But please, look down as much as can be, so you don't accidentally step on me.
10. I fall off trees, and I'm usually green. People often have fun raking me.
11. I can be big or tiny, smooth or rough, but don't throw me as I'm also super tough.

12. People call me a weed and try to get rid of me. I'm yellow and mellow and spread like the devil. Can you guess what I am?
13. I'm a green, lean, watering machine.
14. Hopscotch and scooters are my jam, and I love when you write chalk messages on me! Way to go, bam!
15. I'm everyone's favorite summer treat; put me in a cone, and you have a cold feast!
16. Kids love rolling in me, and dogs love digging me up. But despite all the fun, beware, a bath is a must if you enjoy me too much.
17. I'll help cool you off on a hot summer day, so attach the hose, and watch me sputter away.
18. I open and close all day long. I have a handle you can see and sometimes need a key.
19. Some people think I'm slimy and slow, but really I'm a cute little mollusk who just wants to glow.
20. I live in the park or in the backyard; so pretend to fly and reach for the sky.
21. I'm beautiful, bright, and flutter about; everyone loves me, without a doubt.
22. I'm made of glass and loved to be clean, so grab the Windex and watch me gleam.
